

Louis
GLUNZ BEER
Inc.
Merchants of Fine Beers

Special Events/Sales Support

Summary:

Position requires individual to work in conjunction with Management and Sales Team on events throughout our territory as well as supporting the Sales Department. Organizational skills would be critical to tracking event needs and ordering equipment as well as assisting with Merchandising sales.

Job Duties Include but not limited to:

- Knowledge of the LGBI portfolio of products
- Knowledge of draft equipment including cold plates, tap handles, coolers and parts needed to maintain equipment
- Maintain Draft Cage to include inventory and ordering of necessary parts
- Works with event staff on the equipment delivery, on-site placement, set-up and coordination throughout event which may include weekends
- Will need to be available to work on the weekends during busy festival season
- Help with Merchandising and other Sales Support when not working on Events and in the off season

Customer Service:

- Develops and maintains relationships with customers during event to ensure the staff is trained on equipment usage and beer is pouring properly
- Facilitates deliveries of equipment and beer to Events as well as be on call draft issues
- Be available to merchandise and assist sales team when needed

Administrative:

- Tracking beer used at events for billing and making sure all equipment is accounted for.

Minimum Qualifications:

- At least 21 years of age
- Must have a valid drivers license
- Must be able to pass pre-hire drug screen, credit check, driving record review, criminal background
- Be physically capable of unloading and hauling several kegs at a time
- Car is required for job duties